

Guide to Parking in Pitlochry

If you are coming to Pitlochry by car, please be aware that the event is very popular and leave extra time to find parking in the town.

Public Car Parks: There are several public car parks which are signposted as normal and marked on the map above. There are pay and display parking fees in force before 6pm. Please check before you leave your car.

Private Car Parks: Where additional private car parking facilities are available, these too are marked on the map above. The Armoury Road Car Park, just off Rie-Achan Road signposted as "Overflow Parking", charges £2 for an unlimited stay between 9am and 11pm. SSE visitor centre car park is open to the public and is free to park.

www.enchantedforest.org.uk

Map illustration supplied by Explore Scotland www.pitlochry-scotland.co.uk

On Street Parking: Parking on the street is free, but limited to a 30 minutes stay, no return within 30 minutes. Parking restrictions are clearly displayed on street signage and may vary from street to street. Please park considerately, not on yellow lines and check parking restrictions prior to leaving your car.

Disabled Parking: If you have booked a disabled parking space, you will be given specific travel instructions upon booking. If you haven't received this information please email info@enchantedforest.org.uk and we will send a copy to you by email.